To whom it may concern:

I have known Sonia Price for over 10 years. I know that she is devoted to her children and family. Ms. Prince has strong views and often fiercely advocates those views on Facebook, at School Board meetings, and elsewhere. I don't always agree with those views, but Ms. Prince's passion for her positions is apparent. Ms. Prince takes pride in exercising her First Amendment rights.

Knowing Ms. Prince as I do, I have never heard Ms. Prince threaten anyone. There is a difference between a threat, and a passionate disagreement on an issue affecting our community, state or nation.

Furthermore, I do not believe that Ms. Prince would threaten anyone. Threatening someone's personal safety is not consistent with her beliefs or her character.

Thank you for your consideration,
