Israel and the "Palestinians": Hard info, and a harder question (Part 1 of 2)

EARLY HISTORY: ISLAM VS. JEWS

How did Mohammed himself treat Jews?

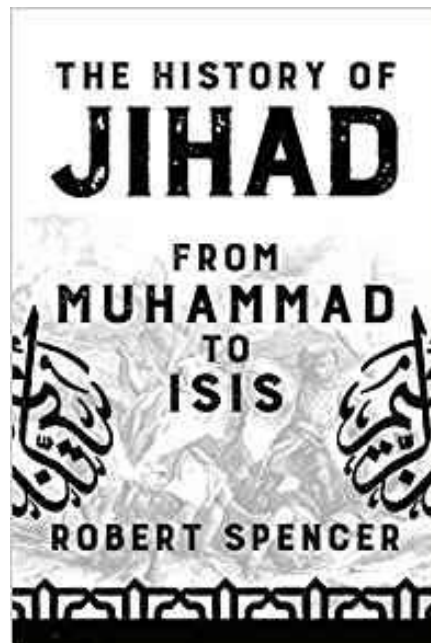

GENOCIDE OF THE QURAYZA JEWS. Muhammad presided over the beheading of six- to nine-hundred men and boys. According to the literature, they were brought out five or six at a time and forced to kneel next to a trench in the marketplace near Muhammad's mosque. The killing lasted from early afternoon until late at night, one beheading every minute for ten to fifteen hours. Muhammad's first cousins Ali and Zubayr did most of the beheading. (Source: www.itsallaboutmuhammad.com)

This is not atypical of early Islamic behavior towards Jews. From a great review of Robert Spencer's new book (bolding added):

*One of the chief merits of Spencer's account of Muhammad's career in this book's first chapter is that he relies entirely on those earliest extant Arabic sources, and if the picture that emerges of the Prophet of Islam is far from flattering, Muslims, at least, cannot complain that it is a portrait painted by the enemy or infidels. Unfortunately, much of the subsequent bloody history of Islam that is recounted in this book can be seen to derive from the example set by its founder: his intolerance of non-Muslims, his anti-Jewish sentiments, his attitude to women, all are attested to in the Islamic sources.

The History of Jihad: From Muhammad to ISIS

Mohammed himself killed Jews en masse; What Happened to the Jews of Arabia? (bolding added):

*When Mohammed fled from Mecca in 622, he went to Medina. At first, he entered into an alliance with the Jews. He studied in their study halls and adopted many of their customs into his incipient religion (e.g. not eating pork). But when, after two years, Mohammed could not convince the Jews to accept him as a prophet and convert to his religion, his attitude turned toward open hostility. He instructed his friends to murder and decapitate Ka'b Ibn al-Ashraf, a renowned Jewish poet and chief of the Banu Nadir (date farmers tribe), and ordered his followers, "Kill every Jew you can."

And his burning hatred for Jews is hard-coded in the Koran itself (HT to Winds of Jihad for this info):

- Antisemitism in the Koran: Part II

- Antisemitism in the Koran: Part III

MORE MODERN TIMES... IN "PALESTINE"

Understanding the background of the situation is critical. First among these things is that prior to the 1960's there was no "Palestinian" identity - and the one that is discussed now is entirely fabricated, and done so with malice aforethought:

"The Palestinian people does not exist. The creation of a Palestinian state is only a means for continuing our struggle against the state of Israel for our Arab unity. In reality today there is no difference between Jordanians, Palestinians, Syrians and Lebanese. Only for political and tactical reasons do we speak today about the existence of a Palestinian people, since Arab national interests demand that we posit the existence of a distinct "Palestinian people" to oppose Zionism. Yes, the existence of a separate Palestinian identity exists only for tactical reasons, Jordan, which is a sovereign state with defined borders, cannot raise claims to Haifa and Jaffa, while as a Palestinian, I can undoubtedly demand Haifa, Jaffa, Beer-Sheva and Jerusalem. However, the moment we reclaim our right to all of Palestine, we will not wait even a minute to unite Palestine and Jordan."

— PLO official Zahir Muhsein, interview with Dutch newspaper Trouw, March 31, 1977.

Arab-Israeli Conflict #1: Pre-State Palestine

Palestinian Arabs never viewed themselves as having a separate identity. When the First Congress of Muslim-Christian Associations met in Jerusalem in February 1919 to choose Palestinian representatives for the Paris Peace Conference, the following resolution was adopted: "We consider Palestine as part of Arab Syria, as it has never been separated from it at any time. We are connected with it by national, religious, linguistic, natural, economic and geographical bonds."

From the same article comes some revealing information about land purchases by Jews from Arabs (bolding added):

*Jews were paying outrageous prices to wealthy Arab landowners for small tracts of arid land. The largest tracts were purchased from a handful of prominent families. The Arabs who became "dispossessed" were those who had willingly sold their land at exorbitant prices to Jewish buyers.

The Peel Commission investigation found that the Arab complaints about Jewish land acquisition were baseless. The Commission's report pointed out that "much of the land now carrying orange groves was sand dunes or swamp and uncultivated when it was purchased ... there was at the time at least of the earlier sales little evidence that the owners possessed either the resources or training needed to develop the land." Moreover, the Commission found that the shortage of land was "due less to the amount of land acquired by Jews than to the increase in the Arab population."

Moreover, more than 70 percent of the land the Jews purchased was bought from large Arab landowners who were paid exorbitant prices. One frequently quoted comparison is that the Jews were paying $1,000 to $1,100 an acre for arid and semiarid land in 1944; rich black soil in Iowa was selling for $110 per acre.

More about the so-called "stolen land"; Jews Legally Purchased 'Palestinian' Land Before The Holocaust. Rashida Lied. (link in original):

In the 1800s, Jewish zionists, which are diaspora Jews who wanted to return to their biblical homeland, started buying land in the region of Palestine, which belonged to the Ottoman Empire (the Turks). The Empire made these land purchases very difficult, discriminatorily restricting Jews' ability to purchase land in the region as much as they could through legislation. By the 1900s, land purchase became easier and Zionists accelerated their land purchases of the Turk-controlled land.

Just who was living there as Jews immigrated, i.e., an indigenous people returning to its native land? Not many Arabs; for the most part it was empty or sparsely populated. Period photos land? NOT many ARABS, for the most part it was empty or sparsely populated. Period photos show how empty this desert land really was; 9,000 Photos from 1800's British Mandate of Palestine – with no trace of 'Palestinians' (bolding and underlining in the original):

In reality according to eyewitness reports the barren British Mandate had a very small number of people living on it. Félix Bonfils (1831-1885) was a French photographer and writer who was active in the Middle East. Four years after his arrival he reported 15,000 prints of Egypt, Palestine, Syria, and Greece, and 9,000 stereoscopic-views. He traveled to the region several times and we hear of no mass population of Palestinians, which contradicts everything the Palestinians lie about to the world.

His pictures did not manage to capture any photographs of a single so-called 'Palestinian' who are suppose to have lost land to Jewish occupation, if we believe Arab propaganda. All he found was a few bedouines passing through and some remnants of the Ottoman Turks. Guess why? Because the "Palestinian" people as we know them today never existed.

Most of the current Arab residents are descended from Arabs who came in at the behest of the Mufti (from the same article; italics in the original, bolding added):

Palestinians are a fake creation ordered and constructed by the Grand Mufti Haj Mohammed Effendi Amin el-Husseini [1889-1974]. They were basically discovered (formed and invented) and originate from mass immigration from Egypt and Saudi Arabia with purpose to commit jihad. The Egyptian fighters ended up in Gaza and the Saudi fighters ended up in the West Bank according to their rout of entry.

This has been well documented by British government reports from the British Mandate and from Transjordan. It also fits the video clips and rants by Hamas leaders, who seem well aware that Palestinians are fake yet continue to argue that they 'lost land'. We are dealing with a terrorist organization here, and not a people who became victims of loss of land.

It is also important to pay attention to the fact that once Israel had been assigned to be returned to the Jewish people in 1917, Muslims rapidly began to pour into the region from other countries with a purpose to kill them. The first conflict and killing in Israel/Palestine was initiated by the Muslims.*

So as you hear claims of the "Palestinians" about being there for centuries don't forget, in evaluating what Hamas and Fatah say, that lying in the service of jihad is permissible – two videos; taqiyya and tawriya. Also read Islam's doctrines of deception. (This, BTW, is why

I am skeptical of the current "warming" of Sunni states towards Israel - after all is said and done, while Shiite Iran is a threat - Israel is still Jewish.)

Jihad was not the only reason Arabs moved to the land - it was also because of the economic boom being created by the immigrating Jews; for example: Were the Arabs Indigenous to

Mandatory Palestine? (bolding added):

All the authors mentioned above refer to the Arabs as being attracted by Jewish economic activity to their settled areas. Ziff describes this pattern:

Not until the Zionists had arrived in numbers did the Arab population begin to augment itself. The introduction of European standards of wage and life acted like a magnet on the entire Near East. Abruptly, Palestine became an Arab center of attraction. By 1922, after a quarter century of Jewish colonization, their numbers mushroomed to 488,000. Today they are over a million.

From the same article:

Modern authors agree with Ziff that the huge increase in Arab population numbers cannot be accounted for by natural growth. Ziff does the math:

The increase in Arab population due to immigration was no secret. Another important testimony came from Robert Kennedy, the future U.S. attorney general, who traveled at age twenty-two in 1948 to Palestine and reported from there for the Boston Post. He also noted the influx of Arab immigration into Palestine:

The Jews point with pride to the fact that over 500,000 Arabs in the 12 years between 1932 and 1944 came into Palestine to take advantage of living conditions existing in no other Arab state.

*The truth remains that the native Arab population in Palestine was relatively small before the first Jewish settlers made it an attractive and prosperous place.

Closing out the historical review, understand that the modern-day "Palestinians" have been offered peace and their own country many times – including, in 2008, when the offer included more land that was captured by Israel in the 1967 war. Also Does the WaPo remember who's responsible for stateless Palestinians? (bolding added):

If the Palestinians had accepted the two-state partition plan of 1947 outlined by the U.N., they would, like Israel, have their own state, and this needless conflict would not exist. Israel has made numerous attempts to negotiate and offered large compromises, but the Palestinians time and again have refused to compromise, sometimes even refusing to sit down and negotiate with Israel, and they walk away from potential peace deals without offering a counter-proposal.

Each time they've said NO – because coexistence is not their goal.

[Debunking the Palestine Lie / 11:36]

Thought starter: If the so-called "occupied territories" post-1967 are the issue, why was there violence before that war (and why was the PLO founded in 1964? Time travel?)? If Israel's existence is the sole issue, why were there riots, massacres, and pogroms against Jews before Israel's formation?

EXCHANGING POPULATIONS

Let's not forget one other thing: yes, many Arabs fled their homes – in large part because they were instructed to by Arab-nations' radio in anticipation of the "momentous massacre" and a planned return to claim the booty in that aftermath. Meanwhile, after Israel's formation, 800,000-plus Jews from the Arab / Islamic world had their property stolen and were forced to flee – mostly to Israel but many to America – often with just the clothes on their backs. The population exchange numbers are roughly equal, so what's different?

Jews welcomed their brethren; yes, life was hard for the refugees, but gradually Israel did absorb them. Meanwhile, Arabs did the opposite: isolating their fellow Arabs, treating them like pariahs, deliberately keeping them in squalor, and in general weaponizing them and their posterity in their ongoing war against Jews. (I remember reading, but alas don't have the bookmark available, an article of how – after the Six Day War – Israel started to build housing in Gaza to accommodate those then living in tent cities. The UN, pushed by the Arabs who didn't want their fellows to get comfortable and give up the pressure on Israel, stopped Israel's effort.)

Uprooted: How 3000 Years of Jewish Civilization in the Arab World Vanished Overnight

(This is a fantastic book.)

DEMONIZATION: THE FIRST STEP IN ANY GENOCIDE

Unable to defeat Jews militarily - which must stick in their shame-culture craw, Arabs have invested in the long term to demonize Israel (bolding added, link in original):

The Qatar Foundation is not the only Islamic petro-theocracy propaganda outfit influencing public high school education in Newton, Massachusetts through private front groups like Primary Source. In fact, the controversy over anti-Semitic and anti-Israel history lessons in Newton first started when Newton invited the Harvard Center for Middle Eastern Studies (CMES) to help its history teachers “develop new resources to use in the classroom to teach on the conflict in Israel and the Occupied Territories.”

This incident shows just a sliver of the Arab theocracies' larger influence operations within the American K-12 system. Carried out with the often-witting collusion of left-wing educators, these influence operations have come a long way to marginalize Jews, Zionism, and Israel (and not infrequently America and the West) within the minds of American children.

It's a multi-pronged, every-morphing, fluid attack (and, in fairness, I have to give them chops for persistence and creativity in this; clearly they've read their Sun Tzu); BDS Advocates Try to Split Jewish Community from Israel (bolding added, links in the original):

These efforts have revealed a new dimension to the BDS movement's Jewish strategy — deliberately creating a political problem for the Reform movement by alleging Israel's actions are anti-democratic. Targeting the most politically liberal wing of American Judaism, which already feels slighted over its treatment by the Israeli rabbinate and the government, is transparent — but clever.

Note the claim in the first linked article in the quote – that Israel is turning away from democracy by disallowing people who actively work against the nation's security from entering. This is classic Alinsky: "Make the enemy live up to its own book of rules". By demanding that Israel admit such people, BDS works to leverage the good intentions of its useful idiots to weaken Israel. Divide and conquer – a technique that predates the Romans. And it's working; Jewish Voice for Peace: Not Jewish, Not Peaceful (Part One) and Anti-Semitism's "Mistaken" in America Via A Few Disputed

One) and Antisemitism's "Mainstreaming" in America via A Four-Pronged Assault: "The Remaining Acceptable Bias/Prejudice Within Polite Societal Discourse". Reading the first article, it's clear that these self-hating Jews are – universally – Plopping Jews, i.e., Jews lacking, if not entirely devoid, active faith.

Another piece about anti-Israel (Leftist) Jews; Jewish Leftists Choose Hamas Over Trump. And in the second one, Pallywood is clearly having an effect as well. (For a side trip about Pallywood, please see this video... and take a look at this article too; The 2019 Pallywood Oscars.)

They work through the UN too:

The International Criminal Court preliminary review of war crime allegations against Israelis is part of the Palestinian Authority's delegitimization and diplomatic campaign against Israel, IDF Military Advocate General Maj.-Gen. Sharon Afek said at a Herzliya conference on Tuesday.

He said that, "We see these efforts as yet another attempt to abuse legal institutions in order to achieve political aims. These efforts serve to undermine the function and perception of the ICC."

The "Palestinians" openly state what their goal is: Israel's elimination (bolding added, thought added in []):

The goal the Palestinians have in mind is to see Israel gone. All of it. Abbas [head of the "moderate" Palestinian Authority] believes he can achieve this goal by waging a diplomatic war against Israel in the international community -- one that is aimed at delegitimizing and demonizing Israel and Jews. His rivals in Hamas believe that Israel could and should be destroyed through terrorism and other acts of violence.

Destruction and murder is openly on the mind of Hamas, in charge of Gaza; their charter states this about Israel (bolding added):

Founded in 1987, Hamas is a U.S.-designated terrorist organization. Hamas does not recognize Israel and its founding charter calls for the destruction of the state of Israel, stating "Israel will rise and will remain erect until Islam eliminates it as it had eliminated its predecessors."

In addition, Article 7 of the Charter calls for the killing of all Jewish people: "The prophet, prayer and peace be upon him, said: The time will not come until Muslims will fight the Jews (and kill them); until the Jews hide behind rocks and trees, which will cry: O Muslim! there is a Jew hiding behind me, come on and kill him! This will not apply to the Gharqad, which is a Jewish tree (cited by Bukhari and Muslim)."

So what is the goal of this delegitimization, this painting of Israel as a pariah state, one that engages in "apartheid" and "genocide" – two universally-recognized evils? The same as the Nazis; Einat Wilf and the War of Words against Israel (bolding added, thought added in []):

"Don't be fooled. this has not been an accidental strategy. It has a clear purpose. The purpose is not criticism of Israel nor a discussion of the issues; the purpose is to paint Israel and Zionism as the ultimate evil. These words [specifically Apartheid and genocide] are chosen because they have become associated in the global mindset with evil. If Israel and Zionism are the ultimate evil, then shouldn't people of good will do something to make sure that that evil is erased from the face from of the earth? Even the Nazis were convinced they were doing something good. Their minds had been prepared to such an extent that they believed that by eliminating the Jewish people, they were in fact serving the world; doing something good for the world, ridding it of a disease. So, if you think about it and history, the greatest atrocities have been preceded by the preparation of people's minds. This is what we're seeing today. This is the nature of this war."

But is it these things, in reality? Remember - from above - that lying to advance Islam is permitted. In reality, Gaza's population is growing; if this is genocide, then I don't know what the word means:

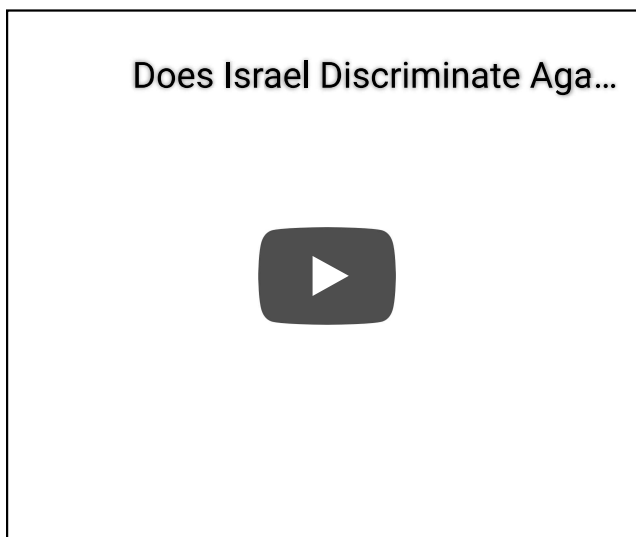

1950 1960 1970 1980 1990 2000 2010

(Image source)

As to apartheid, let's go to two people who know what real apartheid is:

[A Black South African on Israel and Apartheid / 5:25]

[Does Israel Discriminate Against Arabs? / 5:46]

Is Israel a genocidal and/or apartheid state? No. The "Palestinian" case is falsified... unless you're a Teflon Intellect - in which case it doesn't matter what evidence I give.
