Cultural Ion Thrusters 3: A Dark Destination

June 09, 2019

Shameless self-promotion – my most recent five essays:

*Israel and the "Palestinians": Hard info, and a harder question \(Part 2 of 2\)Israel and the "Palestinians": Hard info, and a harder question \(Part 1 of 2\)Impeachment – the only path they have, and two resulting fearsHardwired for FaithEthnic Food and Elections*And Volume I of my essays in one place. Volume II slowly evolving but not posted yet.

I've outlined in three prior posts on this theme ("CIT"), here, here, and here, the idea that there are slowly-slowly pressures on our popular culture with the deliberate intent to move it in a direction desired by powerful and shadowy forces (that, specifically, to be another topic). But what's the desired end state? Where is this leading?

FOX COMEDY FEATURES 6YO 'TRANS' BOY WEARING BONDAGE GAG

A sickening new "comedy" show on FOX features a 6-year-old boy wearing a bondage gag.

(HT ItAin'tHolyWater)

I saw this and said "Are you f*cking kidding me"? I wanted to believe it had to be a prank. Had to be a prank... I was praying it was a prank. Nope. A duckduckgo search here.

Gag. Retch.

There is, as others are noting too, a concerted effort to normalize what I sarcastically termed "intergenerational love"; a while ago I predicted it would be gay marriage, then polygamy/polyamory, and then the parallel sexualization of pre-pubescent children (and I've also predicted the norming of bestiality too - something of which I've actually seen small attempts at doing here and there). But take a look at these four:

Democrats and Hollywood Mainstreaming Pedophilia

Embedded quote (bolding in original):

The producer of the children's film, "Show Dogs," has pulled the film from theaters around the world and will recut it, removing two scenes that seemed to groom children for sexual abuse. This film is about a dog that goes undercover at a dog show competition – harmless enough except for the story arc where the only way for him to win and save the day was to allow unwanted touching of his genitals, while his coach practiced it with him and encouraged him to just go to his "zen" place. Yes...I know...it is hard to believe this was in a children's film, to begin with.

I'm glad the scenes were pulled from the film, but IMHO it's a race to the "Sick f*ck finish line" between the person who imagined the scenes, and the person who approved their being recorded.

Mainstream Media Normalizing Pedophilia in Reality Show, Calling it “Age Gap Love” (bolding added):

*While the legal age of consent in the UK is 16, the program admits that the affection Andy had toward his child wife Beth began well before this age.

“Originally a friend of her Mum and over the years became close to her children too,” the program says as innocent music plays in the background as if this sort of thing is entirely acceptable.

“But once she reached the age of 16, he decided to give this controversial relationship a go,” it continues. What this actually means is that Andy had been attracted to Beth well before her legal age of consent and only after he could no longer go to jail for it, he became public with his sick desires.

“The woman is 19 in the video. If they’d met for the first time when she was 19, it would be weird but not criminal or evil. But he knew her since a child and they started “dating” when she was 16. That’s called grooming and abuse. Dude is a pedophile. This is horrific,” writer Matt Walsh pointed out.

Norms pushed, bent, and shattered. Innocence, and innocents, destroyed.

A GAY OLD TIME

As I observed when discussing gay marriage in one of my Red Pill Jew Journey essays:

Now let me be clear: in the Torah it says that gay sex is a sin, and I believe it. I also know that we have free will. Those who participate in such acts have that choice. I don't approve... but so long as those participating in it are consenting adults, that's their choice. And at the end of their lives, though, that will be placed in the negative column.

The choice – free will, right? – to engage in such is a personal decision. That doesn't mean it's not without eternal consequences.

And not engaging means rising above the animal. Homosexual behavior occurs in animals, and let's be honest; on a purely endorphin level, an orgasm is an orgasm is an orgasm, after all. While most animals with at least a few brain cells have a maternal instinct (to varying levels), to my knowledge only humans have affirmatively connected the sex act with reproduction – bespeaking a conscious awareness and long-term learning of cause and effect. But the norms of society across most ages and civilizations have made gay sex shunned in general. No longer: Target Celebrates Gay Bride Month By Creaming Your shunned in general. No longer, [Target Celebrates Gay Pride Month By Grooming Tour Kids \[Warden\]](#) (bolding added):

No. They just want to, you know, present it as an option for kids--a really cool, socially acceptable one that'll earn you group praise and maybe a bit of friendly life coaching from a totally-not-trying-to-have-sex-with-you adult homosexual.

(I remember, a while ago, reading about the whole intactivist movement against circumcision. IIRC, it was founded by a gay man whose preference was for uncut men... thus his creation of this movement indicates that they really do plan out that far, in this case by trying to create a “crop” of men whose penises were more to his liking.)

Read the whole nauseating thing including the HIV and other STD rate comparisons between straights and gays; also, from this link in the article above, A Review and Analysis of Research Studies Which Assessed Sexual Preference of Children Raised by Homosexuals, this is IMHO absolute proof that gayness is environmental (in parallel, can there be any doubt the sudden surge in transgenderism is fueled by outside influences - which I touch on below). But reread the bolded sentence in the quote I pulled: praise by an in-group is a powerful drug of dopamine-hit addition. Why do you think so many virtue signal all the time? It's so they can get another dopamine hit... and that's why the edge moves (from one of my CIT essays, links in original):

And it moves for a very simple reason: once a precedent is set, e.g., exposure of underwear (and there's no way this is accidental!), then it's on to an inference of no underwear because exposure of underwear has already been done. And then a “wardrobe malfunction” by a woman wearing no underwear (accidental my posterior; you wear no underwear and a dress like this, you're asking for (and expecting) “reveals” even if you don't deliberately make it happen).

THE ANDRO-IZING CONTINUES

(HT BayouRenaissanceMan)

I'd almost prefer to be totally buck-nekkid rather than wear this; certainly I can't fathom wearing something like this voluntarily when there are other options (again, think of the dopamine rush from doing something "edgy" like this... and then the edge moves). And leave us not forget the normalizing of cross-dressing; BBC Promotes 'Drag Syndrome': Drag Queens With Down Syndrome (link in original):

"Meet Drag Syndrome - the outspoken performers with Down's syndrome who are creating a stir on the drag scene," the BBC captioned a four-minute video.

"These drag queens and kings were brought together in 2018 by choreographer Daniel Vais, to provide a platform for performers with learning disabilities and to challenge stereotypes."

"They have received criticism along the way, but with a performance at Glastonbury coming up, could they be about to hit the big time?" the public broadcaster posed.

In the video, "Drag Syndrome" is described as "a collective of artists with Down syndrome who are drag queens and we have a drag king, as well."

Those included in "Drag Syndrome" are Francis as "Lady Francesca," Otto as "Horror Shebang," Danny as "Gaia Callas," and Ruby as "Justin Bond."

TRANS-MANIA

There's a reason I pay 1/3 of my take-home pay to send the progeny to a private school: reducing the chances my kids would have to experience something like this; Another schoolteacher abuses his authority and his kids:

Mark Vince Busenbark is employed in the Madison, Wis. school district as a K-5 science teacher. Without the consent, knowledge, or permission of parents, he not only claimed he's female, but presented a video and read a book about transgenderism in his "science" classes. Understandably, there are frightened and confused children at Frank Allis Elementary school in Madison, there are also outraged parents, and district administrators are unwilling to answer for the unwarranted actions of a school district employee.

What's worse – far worse IMHO – is the reaction of the school board (bolding added):

Several parents posted their anger on Facebook, one parent of a first-grader writing they are "pissed off, because there was no warning or head's up given beforehand." Another parent wrote, "I've had to sit down with my kids and explain that what they heard is flat-out wrong and incorrect. We will be kind to others, but we WILL NOT be involved in games of make-believe. Shame on those that support this!" Their anger is entirely justified, and the school district officials apparently don't want to discuss it.

*Parents have reported that Madison School District administrators brushed them off, refusing to meet with them or even discuss the situation.

Short of home schooling, which I personally would like to do but the wife is not supportive, I can't eliminate the risk entirely... but I'll be damned if I let my kids view this as normal. Fortunately, the oldest is grasping the truth: that simply because you say you're something, doesn't mean you are that something. Citing an earlier CIT essay: clarifying item added in []:

Another example is an episode [of the cartoon "Big City Greens"] where the family goat "identifies as a dog" - and they go along with it. I've told my kids that "they may call it a dog... but it's still a goat". A clear reference to gender self-identification.

That episode plays once in a while, and every time that kid-o-mine says "Yeah, but it's still a goat". Smart kid. A lot smarter than the people who enable this kind of thing, who are proving to be anything but pro-women:

[8th Place: A High School Girl's Life After Transgender Students Joined Her Sport / 7:34]

I read things like this, Transgender woman \(who competed as a man last year\) wins NCAA track championship, or Woman Cyclist Cries Foul After Biological Male Wins Women's World Championship, and think to myself that if I were a woman who had been beaten by a trans-"woman" – just look at that picture – I would not be on the podium smiling and embracing him. I'd like to think I have enough self-worth to walk off. Then again, being <cough cough> old enough to not care, I wouldn't compete at all in a sporting event with such a person and would say why publicly. But this brings consequences.

Look again at that picture and don't doubt – for an attosecond – that there is a backlash against... not that hormone-injected, extreme cosmetic-surgery freak loser who couldn't win a tin medal in a male race, no no no... but the real woman who protested. Do you remember the sh*tstorm over tennis star Martina Navratilova after her comments about trans athletes? Martina Navratilova in 'transphobic' row over comments about women's sport (bolding added):

*McKinnon and other trans activists claim that taking testosterone-blockers and oestrogen as part of the transition process reduces muscle mass, strength and speed and therefore removes any physical advantage. They also argue that being heavier or taller is not necessarily an advantage in many sports.

How does someone even say this with a straight face?

But what happens to people who protest this kind of thing? Silencing, Parents Start Petition Over New Transgender Policy In Their Public School System, But Website Then Shuts Them Down, and more:

(LIT Cornea)

ERASING HISTORY, ERASING PEOPLE

Back when Confederate statues were first being attacked I observed this in an early essay (bolding and link in original):

No, not people next. They already burn flags, and have for decades. Now they've moved on to statues and monuments. Next it will be documents; books, papers, and so on; they're already after websites. But then, yes, it will be people – and not onesie-twosie; these fanatics want purity.

While, yet, it has not turned to physical disappearances – though the shooting of Republican Congressmen does indicate where they are able to go and IMHO are eager to go – the unpersoning of people from social media is legion, and drip-drop people are being erased. There is precedent on the Left, after all.

Consider the case of this high school student, a libertarian and Second Amendment activist, whose picture in his senior yearbook didn't appear; A libertarian student's picture didn't make it into the yearbook. But Karl Marx did. Note the crocodile tears of the school's statement trying to subtle-bully him into just letting it go:

Rohde said he has complained to the school administration numerous times but his complaints have been waved aside. "Basically everyone in the office, and every time I do, they're just like 'Oh Aryeh, be the bigger man, you're better than this! You don't have to pursue this!' and they always try to push it under the rug to make sure nothing happens," he said.

It's about silencing through social pressures.

(HT WindsofJihad)

Those who don't comport are subject to The Shunning; as I wrote in this essay I've essentially lost all contact with my mother's side of the family for the fraternal Left's politics in essentially lost all contact with my mother's side of the family - for the fanatical Left, politics is thicker than blood.

It's also about deliberately unlearning the lessons of history, because when people don't know what happened in the past, they'll repeat them in the future; Take a BOW, Carlos Maza! MIT says teachers have lost access to 1000s of educational videos after YouTube censorship purge:

Welp, we hope Carlos Maza feels better now knowing that thousands of videos that teachers were using to educate people on the history of Nazi Germany have been deleted from YouTube. Shew! People were almost EDUCATED and we can't have that now, can we?

Because there an eerie rhyming happening and TPTB don't want people noticing:

Funny. Nazis tore down statues. Banned free speech. Blamed economic hardships on one group of people. Instituted gun control. Put the state before god. Nationalized health care. Strict government regulation of industry.

Does this sound like the policies of a current political party in the us?

(HT Gorges)

CLUMPS OF CELLS

(HT Gorges)

Remember the New York legalization of infanticide up to birth, and some “ethicists” arguing for post-birth abortion (links and italics in original, bolding added):

Two professors published, in the Journal of Medical Ethics, a paper titled "After-Birth Abortion: Why Should the Baby Live?" It was a shocker, defending and advocating infanticide but calling it after-birth abortion.

The professors declared, "Therefore we claim that killing a newborn could be ethically permissible in all the circumstances where abortion would be. Such circumstances include cases where the newborn has the potential to have an (at least) acceptable life, but the well-being of the family is at risk."

*Their vacuous arguments get worse by the paragraph. They say, "Merely being human is not in itself a reason for ascribing someone a right to life." The professors argue that personhood doesn't begin until sometime after birth, so there must be some magic going through the birth canal.

The professors defend their position by saying, "[I]n order for a harm to occur, it is necessary that someone is in the condition of experiencing that harm. If a potential person, like a fetus and a newborn, does not become an actual person, like you and us, then there is neither an actual nor a future person who can be harmed, which means that there is no harm at all[.] ... In these cases, since non-persons have no moral rights to life, there are no reasons for banning after-birth abortions."

Sorry, kid, you're just not what we thought a baby would be. So off to get a “shot”...

(Image source)

More broadly: if you are willing to kill an infant who has committed no crime aside from being born, if you are willing to euthanize a toddler who is simply being difficult, what moral line still exists?

BENT AND BROKEN...

For the anointed, traditions are likely to be seen as the dead hand of the past, relics of a less enlightened age, and not as the distilled experience of millions who faced similar human vicissitudes before.

-- Thomas Sowell

From Evangelists Of A Different Stripe (links, italics in the original, bolding added):

Some time ago, I wrote about the detriments that pertain to male homosexuality. In my well researched, carefully thought out opinion, that sexual orientation is a cross to be borne and not a path to any degree of personal fulfillment. If I'm correct, then to choose a homosexual life path would mark the man who does so as seriously disordered. His attempts to persuade others to adopt it would indict him, in my eyes at least, as a villain.

Across multiple fronts, slowly-slowly, the very concepts of morality, ethics, and societal norms are being systematically erased. The IMHO deep-rooted and hardwired recoil from killing is being erased. The history of our imperfect but still exceptional country, and Western Civilization itself, are being systematically wiped out – with its accomplishments denigrated and despised. Meanwhile, Socialism – which brings misery to every place it touches, is once again ascending in popularity.

And anyone who opposes this trend is painted as evil.

... TO A DARK END

In my study of communist societies, I came to the conclusion that the purpose of communist propaganda was not to persuade or convince, not to inform, but to humiliate; and therefore, the less it corresponded to reality the better. When people are forced to remain silent when they are being told the most obvious lies, or even worse when they are forced to repeat the lies themselves, they lose once and for all their sense of probity. To assent to obvious lies is...in some small way to become evil oneself. One's standing to resist anything is thus eroded, and even destroyed. A society of emasculated liars is easy to control. I think if you examine political correctness, it has the same effect and is intended to.

— Theodore Dalrymple

If the civilization in which you grew up and from whose millennia of progress you benefitted from are not just not worthy of note, but to be reviled and shunned... if you are conditioned to reflexively obey the gestalt environment and authoritarian diktat by fear of social shunning and rejection in parallel with dopamine addition praise for following the herd... if you are willing to kill an infant purely for convenience... and you are thoroughly convinced that those who oppose your group's desires to create a Socialist Utopia are branded as evil...

"Don't be fooled. this has not been an accidental strategy. It has a clear purpose. The purpose is not criticism of Conservatives nor a discussion of the issues; the purpose is to paint Conservatives as the ultimate evil. ... If Conservatives are the ultimate evil, then shouldn't people of good will do something to make sure that that evil is erased from the face from of the earth? ... Their minds [are being] prepared to [... accept...] that by eliminating Conservatives, they [... will be] ridding it of a disease. So, if you think about it and history, the greatest atrocities have been preceded by the preparation of people's minds."

Then the ground has been effectively laid for a population willing and eager to implement and protect what's next on their agenda (bolding added):

They also believed that their immediate responsibility would be to protect against what they called the counter revolution and they felt that this counter revolution could best be guarded against by creating and establishing reeducation centers in the Southwest where would take all the people who needed to be reeducated into the new way of thinking and teach them how things were going to be.

I asked, well, what is going to happen to those people that we can't reeducate that are diehard capitalists and the reply was that they'd have to be eliminated. And when I pursued this further they estimated that they would have to eliminate 25 million people in these reeducation centers. And when I say eliminate I mean kill – 25 million people.

I want you to imagine sitting in a room with 25 people most of which have graduate degrees from Columbia and other well known educational centers and hear them figuring out the logistics for the elimination of 25 million people and they were dead serious."

2+2=4. They're making plans. You should too.

(HT Aesop)

And when the time comes, and I truly believe – and fear – it’s when not if, channel Cloud William.

We do not talk to Kohms; they are only for killing.

I do not coexist with cancer. I do not find common ground with gangrene. The Left, the globalists, and Islam must all be destroyed... or America, Israel, and Western Civilization itself will die.
