The Islamic Lotus

August 18, 2018

In my post England needs to re-instate hangings. And in Europe in general. And in America there are links to a number of other posts I've done about the Islamic invasion of Europe, like: Islamic Invasion: They're here to conquer, and they all know it which, in turn, was inspired by Germany: Israeli journalist forges Syrian passport and poses as refugee, concludes most migrants don't intend to integrate.

One quote, from that last link, sums up the dire situation Western Civilization is in:

The Muslims whom he spoke with in Europe were very open about striving for a Caliphate and Sharia-state.

[The Suicide of Europe / 5:48]

THE ISLAMISTS ARE OPEN ABOUT THEIR CONQUEST DESIRES

Consider this statement by the head of a Muslim party in the Netherlands; Muslim party leader in the Netherlands tells Dutch to leave their country if they don't like

diversity:

“If they don’t like a changing Netherlands in which people with different cultures live... like in the city of Zaandam or the neighbourhood of Poelenburg, they should get lost,” Kuzu says in an interview.

And they already see themselves as victors to whom the spoils of conquest Hijra already belong. E.g., Muslim refugees to the British people “we do not accept British laws, you adopt our Sharia Laws”

Now imagine if a white man had said this to, well, any woman:

“Listen you Swedish whore:

We Arabs are here to take over your fucking country!

So get down on your knees and suck my cock you little Swedish whore!”

But a Muslim says it, so all is forgiven.

From Imam in Austrian mosque calls on youth to establish Islamic State and wage Jihad we see the problem is across western Europe (link in the original):

A mobile phone video, taken inside the Viennese Taiseer mosque, shows how imams call on youths to create an Islamic State, Austrian newspaper Krone reports.

While one imam calls youth to establish an Islamic state as “they have the most important roles in jihad and proselytising”, another preaches against so-called unbelievers.

Congratulating Christians on religious festivals is something like “haram” – which is forbidden. “It’s like prostration to the cross. For Allah worse than drinking alcohol,” says Imam Zakaria M. Other imams present are Sheik El-Said F and Aiman M.

Shariah “police” patrols wander the no-go zones of already-conquered territory to enforce THEIR laws on European soil; 'Sharia Patrols' Harassing Citizens in London, Belgium, Sweden:

“Ultimately I want to see every single woman in this country covered from head-to-toe; I want to see the hand of the thief cut; I want to see adulterers stoned; I want to see Sharia in Europe, and I want to see it in America as well,” says “Sharia Patrol” member Abu Rumaysah in an eye-opening interview with CBS correspondent Clarissa Ward.

The streets of London are an “alternate reality” at night, says CBS correspondent Clarissa Ward: Western women are abused, men who dare to drink alcohol or gamble are harassed by Sharia patrols.

From The Problem of Sharia Law:

For its part at the same time, Muslim activists in UK demanded that Sharia law replace UK common law in a number of major cities, including Birmingham, Manchester, and Liverpool. In East London, where 40% of Muslims live, posters declare that “You are entering a Sharia controlled zone,” and local imams have threatened women with death if they refuse to wear the Hijab. Already some British financial institutions, to satisfy wealthy Muslims, donate a part of their profits to Muslim organizations. Noticeably, David Cameron in 2013 changed his attitude, announcing that the UK would become the first non-Muslim nation to issue Sharia “compliant bonds.” London, he thought, would be not only a great capital of Islamic finance in the Western world, but could stand alongside with Dubai as one of the great capitals of finance.

Not only that, but the authorities themselves act submissively, more afraid of being called “racist” than in doing their jobs to protect their fellow native citizens. Listen to Sargon of Akkad and his relation of how the authorities in both the UK and Australia bend over backwards not to provoke their new rulers:

Western Sharia Police

[Western Sharia Police / 29:01]

In Finland, a Muslim immigrant complains:

Muslim Woman in Finland complains that there are too many Finnish people in Finland. She says they must welcome more Muslims into Finland for the sake of diversity.

Migrants complain that the culture of Finland is not Islamist enough for them to adopt it in its entirety and therefore they strive to make Islam an integral part of the Finnish society.

It's in America too; WATCH: Founder of Sharia Crime Stoppers Says 'Sharia Law Is In Michigan' (link in original):

*Loomer sat down with Manasseri and asked him about why it is important to know about Sharia and what people need to know about El-Sayed. Is El-Sayed practicing Taqiyya in order to become the next Governor of Michigan and advance Islam in the United States?

"There are 140 mosques in the state of Michigan...each of the Imams at these mosques is supreme," according to Manasseri. "The mosque itself is a seed of government. Sharia law is in Michigan. We have had leaders of organizations like CAIR Michigan say that it is."

And more, Virginia-Based Imam Claims America Will Soon Be a "Muslim Nation":

A Virginia-based imam who appears to hold the Trump Administration in contempt told his listeners that America has "great potential" and that he believed that "it will be a Muslim nation." Imam Sulaiman Jallo gives English-language sermons in several mosques, including Dar Al Noor in Manassas, Virginia.

(HT BlazingCatFur)

They preach for the Caliphate in America:

Man in crowd, followed by crowd and Haitham Ibn Thbait: There is no God but Allah, and Muhammad is His Messenger!

There is no God but Allah, the Caliphate is His Unity!

They're openly flexing their power, and openly state that it is about power; Massive Muslim Brotherhood Display of Power to Take Place in Minnesota:

When asked what the purpose of the Super Eid event was, the reply came that it was a display of "power."

Demographic – and political – power, like they already show by taking over streets in, for example, France for their prayer times:

[Paris...Lost? / 4:25]

THE GLOBALISTS ARE OPEN ABOUT THE GREAT REPLACEMENT

Echoing this sentiment is a German politician who said that Germans who don't agree with Merkel's open borders are "free to leave Germany": (link in original, goes to a video in German w/o subtitles... but check out the reaction of the crowd):

According to Walter Lübcke, the district president of Kassel, a city in state of Hesse, citizens who disagree with the government's open-door immigration policy are "free to leave Germany."

And later in that same article (link in original):

Meanwhile, the German government wants to bring in even more migrants. Speaking at a meeting of the Social Democrats (SPD) in Berlin on November 12, German Vice Chancellor Sigmar Gabriel argued that Germany should bring in a "large contingent" of migrants in order to prevent human traffickers from profiting from the migrant crisis.

Gabriel apparently wants to airlift tens of thousands of migrants to Germany. "No one should die on the way to Europe, which must be our goal," he said. If other European countries refuse to participate in the plan, he said, "Germany should take the lead."

A German man, complaining about the harassment his granddaughter experiences, is told not to complain and that the girl should just find a different way to school:

[Refugees harass germans - Their local mayor tells them not to complain / 2:33]

Germans are having their property taken over by force to be used as homes for the refugees, with long-time residents being kicked out of their homes:

German authorities are applying heavy-handed tactics to find housing for the hundreds of thousands of migrants and refugees pouring into the country from Africa, Asia and the Middle East.

With existing shelters filled to capacity, federal, state and local authorities are now using legally and morally dubious measures — including the expropriation of private property and the eviction of German citizens from their homes — to make room for the newcomers.

Despite news like this Sweden: Muslim migrant joblessness at nearly 20%

Despite news like this, Sweden muslim migrant joblessness at nearly 20%, government calls for even more Muslim migrants, and this, Sweden Approaches the Brink, Keeps Head in Sand, and information like this, New book reveals the EU cover-up of the migrant crime wave, they want more migrants. It's like they're under a geas.

THE GREAT REPLACEMENT

Before you proceed, I strongly urge you to stare at this picture from Belgium:

(Source: Flemish politician: We are being replaced, but we will resist against the hostile takeover of Islam)

There's a video at the link but it's been removed. So here's another one:

[Muslim Demographics / 7:30]

And they know the plan (quote from the link "German politician...", bolding added):

"I am telling you honestly, Islam will come to Germany, whether you like it or not. Your daughter will wear a headscarf (hijab). Your son will wear a beard. Okay. And your daughter will marry a bearded man.

"We are reproducing faster and faster. You Germans are not getting any children. In the best case you get two children. We make seven to eight children. Okay mate? And then we take four wives each, then we have 22 children. Maybe you Germans have one child and a dog. Huh? And that's it.

In France, the cracks are showing; Macron is losing control over Islam-dominated no-go areas in France, asks public for help:

[Macron] announced that by 2020, there will be 1,300 additional police officers in 60 sensitive neighbourhoods. Everyone can report problems on a central website. An estimated six million people – about one tenth of the French population live in the 1,500 neighbourhoods that the government classifies as sensitive areas.

Already in 2011, a ground breaking 2,200-page report titled “Suburbs of the Republic”, concluded that many French suburbs are becoming “separate Islamic societies” cut off from the French state and where Islamic law is rapidly displacing French civil law.

And growing – images of Paris from here:

SOME FORESAW IT

From Europe is dying—but don't be alarmed (links in original):

In a 1968 speech, which came to be known as the “Rivers of Blood” speech, Enoch Powell, the Conservative shadow cabinet minister, warned of dire consequences should immigration to Britain continue at its then current rate.

The speech spelled the end of Powell’s political career. Yet, as Murray points out, Powell’s predictions fell far short of the eventual reality. Nothing in the speech suggests that Powell had foreseen anything of the magnitude of the 1,400 rapes that occurred in the English city of Rotherham at the hands of Pakistani rape gangs over a number of years, much less the 1,200 assaults by North African men that took place outside the Cologne train station in a single night in 2015. Powell hadn’t actually used the phrase “rivers of blood,” but by 2017 one could speak in a figurative manner of the Mediterranean as a sea of 2017, one could speak in a figurative manner of the Mediterranean as a sea of blood. Starting in 2014, an average of 3,000 migrants were drowning each year in the crossing attempt.

3,000 drowning each year? That's a good start. Missile the boats and strafe the survivors... sharks have to eat too, you know.

THE LOTUS BURSTS FORTH

I saw a great analogy some time ago that applies to the situation:

Imagine a large pond with a lotus plant, just one, in one small corner. That plant doubles overnight, every night. You wouldn't notice it for days on end. Only when it reached about 1/16th of the pond would it penetrate to your consciousness. The next day it covers 1/4 of the pond, the next 1/2, and then the whole pond is covered. Seemingly, in just a couple of days, what appeared to be a clear pond is suddenly choked with plants.

Americans and Europeans are finally waking up to that Islamic lotus, but we are already besieged. The hour is late.

[Europeans Are Waking Up! How Even Ordinary People Are Beginning to Take Action Against Immigration / 4:47]

FROM ZERO TO JACKBOOT

We have a horrific recipe brewing with the following ingredients:

- An ongoing stream of migrants acting more and more clearly as invaders with conquest as their open goal
- They have already seized control of multiple areas across Europe and have started in America as well
- A political class not just oblivious to the crimes and effects of their policies, but actively aiding that invasion and excoriating the natives for resisting
- That same political class clearly believes, as judged by their words and actions, that destroying their own countries is a good thing
- We can no longer avoid implementing the Spanish Solution in the face of the Islamic invasion if we wish Western Civilization to survive

And those who have been seen to have helped this invasion will be targeted too. Even though politically-conservative Jews like myself have screamed to try and wake people up, and specifically warned my fellow American Jews (Part I, Part II), and called out high-profile Jews working for this, we'll be blanket-targeted. We're already seen as being behind it (gag alert), even though it's liberalism, not Judaism, driving this - for example, the more Orthodox a Jew is, the more likely they are to be Republican:

Support for Trump among Orthodox Jews on Election Day does not seem to have waned, according to the AJC poll, even after Trump infuriated many American Jews with his response to white supremacist violence in Charlottesville, Va., last month: 71 percent of Orthodox respondents viewed Trump's performance favorably.

The Jewish vote

The 2017 survey by the American Jewish Committee provides this breakdown of the 2016 presidential vote among the major Jewish religious movements.

Voted for Trump

Voted for Clinton

*The AJC survey did not list the "Just Jewish" voting percentage for Hillary Clinton.

Source: AJC 2017 SURVEY OF AMERICAN JEWISH OPINION

Peter Grant at BayouRenaissanceMan observed – at least, this is where I first saw it – that nobody goes from zero to jackboot faster than the Europeans. People in the West, particularly white people, are beginning to hate.

[The Beginnings of Hate / 18:55]

When that hate bursts forth in full flower, it's going to be bad. Very bad.
Rivers of blood bad.

(Source)

And it will be the fault of the multiculturalist traitors who sowed the seeds.

IN SUM

To the invaders: get out now and go home... those who support this democide, go with them. Or else. Because when it starts, no quarter.

I grew up conservadox - an orthodox-leaning conservative. I moved to a town with both conservative and reform temples and joined the conservative temple. Over the past 30 years, I have watched with disappointment (and sometimes anger) as the conservative temple has abandoned traditional Jewish in-temple behavior and prayers, and substituted "modern" behaviors and prayers. I can no longer attend services there - their behaviors reflect a disrespect toward Judaism and toward G-D's law. The reason that Orthodox Jews tend toward conservatism is that Orthodox Jews still follow G-D's law, the teachings of the Rabbis, and the Talmud - the combined wisdom that has served Jews for thousands of years. If the "Jews" at that conservative temple wish to abandon traditional Jewish law and teachings in favor of inventing their own behaviors merely for "convenience", they're free to do so. I, however, will continue to follow Jewish law and teachings on my own... and I'm considering joining a local Chabad (Orthodox temple) to fully reconnect with my Jewish heritage.

NITZAKHON August 19, 2018 at 8:49 AM

I grew up "culturally Jewish"; we'd light the Chanukah candles, have Pesach at my cousin's house, and so on. But not much.

As I related in Part II* of my Red Pill Journey, in the last decade my faith has awakened and roared like a Judean lion. I, too, have seen a similar transition in the Synagogue my family is in. When we first considered the place, I really liked the Rabbi. As I understand it, he was pushed out for being too hard-line. We had a truly abysmal interim Rabbi, and while the current one is a nice man, he's definitely taking the place towards the Reform. Ugh.

I'd love to join the local Chabad, but it is farther, and my non-Jewish wife occasionally pushes back on my push to have our house be a Jewish house. Thus I am walking a fine line between having that influence, but not alienate her. (I am hoping that she can join us on our planned trip to Israel - travel as a family - and I am very interested to see what her reaction to seeing the Kotel is going to be... I know a number of people who have had a palpable sense of G-d's presence there.)

REPLY

Odysseus August 19, 2018 at 11:47 PM

Europe's non-islamic minorities would also probably do well to have an exit plan ready. Since Europe's zero to jackboots routine seems to be hard on everyone not just the deserved.

NITZAKHON August 20, 2018 at 9:38 AM

Especially for Jews (OK, self-interest here).

Too many Jews are liberals, and their "good intentions" are viewed as aiding and abetting the invasion.

What irks me no end is I see all sorts of commentators in Jewish magazines decrying the "Jews will not replace us" meme; yet when I contact them to ask if they even know where that comes from... silence. Utter silence.

REPLY*MrGarabaldi August 21, 2018 at 10:57 PM

Good article,
I use as an example Lebanon, It used to be called the Paris of the Middle East, until the palestinians using the secular rules of the country against the natives living there and this started the long ongoing civil war. The palestinians usurped the rule of law, the election system and other government systems for their goal of total rule. This will come here, use our rules against us. When they are the minority, they worry about protection for the minority and special status, but when they become the majority, there will be no minority protection.

NITZAKHON August 22, 2018 at 6:21 AM

Thanks!

The Koran is a 1400 year old conquest manual, and I have to admire its sheer genius.

And my fellow American Jews, the ones who took the Muslims' side, will be relegated to dhimmi status (at best).

I remember listening to Brigitte Gabriel talking about Lebanon, and how the good liberals were then enslaved and bleated "But we helped you, protected you, and took your side"!

"Stupid infidels"! was the reply.
