Musings from a capital-C Conservative American Jew.

Reparations? A short, modest proposal...

February 23, 2019

From LegalInsurrection: Several 2020 Democrat Candidates Endorse Racial Reparations

OK... first, my mother was an immigrant. Until she came here, nobody from half of my genetic line was in the US. My mother's ancestors were not, in any way, involved in the slave trade. They were musicians, businessmen, Rabbis...

My father's side was all northern; nobody owned slaves and, as far as any of my genealogical research, shows nobody was involved in the slave trade (at least one worked against it).

So if I'm going to be blamed, and have my income / wealth confiscated, for something I didn't do, nor my parents, nor my grandparents, nor my great grand-parents... F you.

Better, here's my modest proposal. Anyone wanting reparations, their "40 acres and a mule"...

- They and their entire nuclear family (such as they are in the black community with a 75% illegitimacy rate) are handed $5,000,000 cash. No taxes taken out.
- They are stripped, irrevocably, of their American citizenship.
- They are repatriated to the African country that most closely resembles their DNA make-up Because without slavery that's where they'd be. So let's right this horrific wrong and ship them back. Make sure the locals know they're being dropped off at the airport so that a "welcoming party" can be arranged for them to warmly welcome their returning long-lost kin.

An added thought: I have zero issue with a person of a different skin color; I still hold to Martin Luther King, Jr.'s statement. But a person who thinks they are "owed" for something that ended 150 years ago... sorry, you've had time to advance (and has been noted by both Professor Walter Williams and Dr. Thomas Sowell, blacks were advancing just fine... until Democrats passed the so-called "Great Society" which destroyed the black family).

My wife is a non-white immigrant. Literally the day after she got her Social Security card and my wife is a non-white immigrant. Literally the day after she got her Social Security card and could work, she went out to find a job. And I'm reminded by that of a story about the Hmong immigrants to America as published in IIRC The Atlantic many years ago... from memory and much summarized:

A Hmong man came to the US with the shirt on his back. He and his family worked hard, scrimped, saved, and after 10-15 years he became successful, with his own business, a nice car and house, etc. A black passer-by, seeing the car, the house, the clothes, etc., talked with him and asked him "You've been here, what, 15 years - how come you have all this?"

The Hmong man answered "You've been here your whole life - how come you don't?"

I'd sooner French-kiss a rattlesnake than trust a Democrat!

Well if they don't blame whitey they will definitely blame us Jews!

NITZAKHON February 25, 2019 at 11:58 AM

Anything... anything... ANYTHING to avoid taking responsibility for themselves.

My immigrant wife pegged them - not all blacks, but some - when she said that they still have a slave mentality. Not for nothing did G-d have the Israelites wander in the desert until most of the generations that were used to be slaves had died out. Clearly, that's taking longer here.

I can understand those who've lived here all their lives not having a fortune. My ancestors mostly pre-date the USA, and few are more than moderately well-off. But, almost all of them are self-supporting, live peacefully, and literate. They do not take advantage of their neighbors or kin. They do not glorify crime, violence, or predation.

So - not like the underclasses that are leaching the life out of this country. More like a yeoman class.

Not everyone has the drive to become rich.

But, nearly everyone has the capacity to reach the solidly self-sufficient lowest rungs (not BARELY self-sufficient, but capable of sustaining long periods of economic downturn without hitting the streets).
