ESSAY: Big Conspiracy - Democrats and Covid Deaths

October 11, 2020

(My avatar: An interesting mix of my Jewish mother's side and my father's Viking side. This is my default lead-in image for my essays.)

This is a long essay. I weighed breaking it up into two parts, but it's important to see the whole picture in one go. I don't think it's a slog to read - and I hope, when you get to the end, you'll agree with me in believing it was necessarily to leave it intact.

Here are my last five non-Rule Five posts (multi-part essays count as one):

BREAKING: Clinton Emails Released!!!

WEDNESDAY WHITTLE October 8, 2020

Quick Take: My Op-Ed at GraniteGrok

Quick Take: Shortages and Ill Winds

RANDOM THOUGHTS: October 2, 2020

Three from the past, chosen at my whim:

The Revamp Project: A Very Personal Opposition to Gun Control (Parts 1-3)

Shattered Barriers – a quick-ish post

Socialism: A reminder

And a bonus few, virus-related:

The true enemy is not the virus

Quick post: Societal hubris triggers viral nemesis

Virus thoughts: why are the politicians immune from the shutdown?

Speaking of the past: Volume I and Volume II. (If I get inspired I may just fold them all into one...) Other features:

RANDOM THOUGHTS: A link aggregate built up over a few days – not “current” news per se but things that attract my attention, and about which I often comment.

WEDNESDAY WHITTLE: A collection of videos – not just by Bill though he figures prominently – that I think are informative.

CARTOONS: Editorial cartoons featuring my concepts, but that I have drawn by a professional (since I can’t draw my way out of a wet paper bag). An example cartoon chosen at my whim:

Permission to use this image gratis is granted provided:

1. Neither alterations nor additions are made to the image, caption, text, or this notice
2. This image will not be used commercially
3. Credit for this image is explicitly given to me, and a linkback to my blog given

If you're a blogger and like any of these cartoons I'd greatly appreciate your using them. All I ask for is:

1. No alterations to the image or notice on it
2. Give me credit for it

3. Give a linkback to my blog

I pay $150 for each of these. If you “snip” the cartoon without the notice you are stealing my work without giving me credit. That’s not right or ethical.

 Please stand by... two new cartoons coming soon!!! ***

And for those interested in such things, every Friday I do a Rule Five picture post. The last one is below (I know, I know, the image is clickbait... deal; give me a better way to get viewers to my blog and I'll use that instead - just for reference, the one just below has over 500 hits; the week before has over 1200 hits, and the week before likewise has almost 1300 hits. For better or worse, this does get traffic!). First, a notice about my use of such materials:

A very brief observation on Rule Five materials

Gratuitous Rule Five Friday: Women with bare bellies

AND SO I BEGIN...

Some time ago I introduced the idea of the Big Conspiracy – definition restated:

A plan so audacious in scope and scale and time horizon, with an intent so sweeping, that even when told about it by people with personal experience in it and/or presented with strong evidence supporting the exposure, the average person will refuse to believe it.

And have, thus far, written two essays based on that:

Big Conspiracy: Electing a New Population

The Big Conspiracy: Conquest by Hijra

I've had a couple more rattling around, but am compelled to write about one. Now. Out of 200,000 alleged Covid deaths – alleged because with everything being classified as a Covid death I do not believe the official number – why are somewhere around 1/3 of them in nursing homes in just a few states? All “D” states insofar as I am aware.

Very fortuitously, just the other day I was listening to Jeff Kuhner on WRKO and he was discussing the VP debate and related topics – and saying how in many other countries if a person who has Covid dies from a heart attack, it's counted as a heart attack, but in the US it's counted as a Covid death. A hat trick of pieces supporting the overestimation claim:

U.S. COVID-19 Death Toll Is Inflated

Colorado amends coronavirus death count - says fewer have died of COVID-19 than previously reported

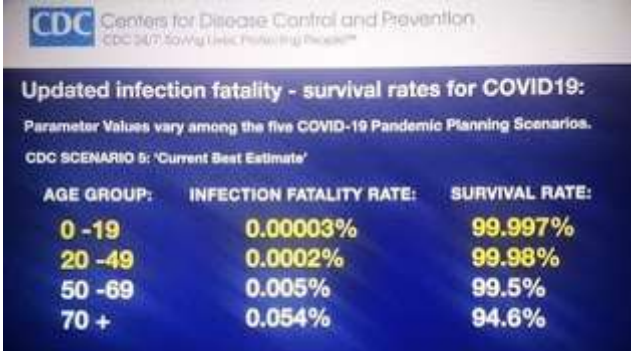

Has the US COVID-19 death count been exaggerated by 100,000+?

Update: More evidence the number of COVID-19 deaths is greatly exaggerated. Panic porn.

He then posed the rhetorical question Why would this be? He then answered it: to pad the numbers, inflate the numbers, all to make this be another hammer to use against Trump.

Remember – it's not what's true, it's what you can get people to believe... and judging by the angry anti-Trumpers on LinkedIn, and equally angry conversations I've had in person, they've swallowed it hook, line, and sinker.

Update:

CDC Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

CDC SCENARIO 5: 'Current Best Estimate'

20 -49	0.0002%	99.998%

70 +	0.054%	94.6%

(Image from New CDC Data: Survival Rate For COVID Is 99.99% Unless You're 70+ Then It's 94%)

TWO BACK-OF-THE-MIND TICKLES

This has been puzzling me. Why would Cuomo et al send people with active cases to nursing homes – people in a concentrated area? People who, historically, are more susceptible to the flu than the general population'; Why flu is so deadly in the elderly: Older people's immune systems 'fail to detect infection so can't mount a response':

Nine in ten deaths attributed to the flu each year occur in people over 65 and they're more susceptible because their immune systems cannot mount an antiviral response like younger people.

Assuming no ill intent, the death toll was still predictable. And why call for aid, and then not use it when President Trump sends it?

(HT Woodsterman)

This was not an isolated case. In Michigan, a bed facility was set up:

(HT Woodsterman)

But again, not used; instead, Michigan governor Whitmer put Covid-positive people in nursing homes. Why? And there's more:

Two charged over handling of deadly COVID-19 outbreak at Massachusetts veterans home

Veterans. People who signed the blank check to protect us up to and including their lives to fight for our freedom – not be infected and dead in their dotage.

Depending on which estimate you take, somewhere between 30% to 40% of the Covid deaths are attributable to the decision to put actively-infectious people into populations of most-vulnerable people.

And just before I hit Publish I found this, having had another mental tickle – so I did a search; 'Death Sentence': Why Did Dem. Governors Place COVID-Positive Patients Back in Nursing Homes? (bolding added):.

“Democrats failed our nursing home residents, plain and simple,” Rep. Jim Jordan (R-Ohio) declared in a statement Monday. “Despite clear warnings about exposing nursing homes to this virus, some Democrat governors decided it made more sense to force nursing homes to take in coronavirus patients, which resulted in countless avoidable deaths. The American people deserve to know what informed and motivated these decisions so it doesn’t happen again.”

“The decision of several governors to ignore federal protocols and instead mandate COVID-positive patients be forced back to their nursing homes ended up being a death sentence for tens of thousands of our nation’s most vulnerable citizens,” Rep. Steve Scalise (R-La.), the ranking member on the committee, said in a statement.

CMS Administrator Seema Verma also warned, “Under no circumstances should a hospital discharge a patient to a nursing home that is not prepared to take care of those patients’ needs.”

*Yet in each state represented by these governors, nursing homes were mandated not to turn away patients who had tested positive for coronavirus. The New York order came on March 25, the Michigan version on April 15, the California order on March 30, the Pennsylvania version on March 18, and the New Jersey one on March 31. Each came after the CMS guidance and arguably contradicted the spirit of the federal guidance.

And a related link displayed in the article: Cuomo Defends Barbaric Nursing Home Policy: ‘Older People, Vulnerable People Are Going to Die’

ALMOST THE LAST PIECE

I’ve started doing puzzles. They’re fun, especially (Rule Five warning) the ones at A trainwreck in Maxwell – like this one. (My time: 7:35)

But a critical piece of the puzzle, an Aha! piece, that clicked for me was the news that the Pennsylvania Health Secretary withdrew their mother from such a facility as the deaths mounted; Pennsylvania health official moved mother from nursing home as deaths skyrocketed (link in original):

In March, Levine ordered long-term care facilities in the state to continue to accept coronavirus patients who had been discharged from hospitals but unable to return to their homes, the Bucks County Courier Times reported.

Of the state's 3,806 coronavirus deaths, 2,611 had occurred in nursing homes and long-term-care facilities, according to ABC27.

The Pennsylvania attorney general has reportedly opened a criminal investigation of several facilities in the wake of the rising death toll.

So, as the death toll mounted, as I understand it, they continue the policy... but they snatch their own loved one from the maw.

Hmmmmm.

It's like, in a horror movie, when you see the person reaching for the doorknob where you just know there's a gruesome scene with the killer waiting, and you're screaming in your mind DON'T OPEN THAT DOOR!

THAT LAST PIECE

So I was reading somewhere, forgive me for the paraphrase and not giving attribution, to the effect that to a Socialist, the individual is nothing, The State is everything – and the Individual matters only as that person benefits The State. Not as an Individual worthy of anything as an individual.

Recall how Obama said this; Obama: Maybe You're "Better Off" Taking Painkillers And Forgoing Surgery:

At one point in the town hall, broadcast from the East Room by ABC news, a woman named Jane Sturm told the story of her 105-year-old mother, who, at 100, was told by an arrhythmia specialist that she was too old for a pacemaker. She ended up getting a second option, and the operation, for which Ms. Sturm credits her survival. "Look, the first thing for all of us to understand that is we actually have some -- some choices to make about how we want to deal with our own end-of-life care," Mr. Obama replied. After discussing ways "we as a culture and as a society [can start] to make better decisions within our own families and for ourselves," he continued that in general "at least we can let doctors know and your mom know that, you know what? Maybe this isn't going to help. Maybe you're better off not having the surgery but taking the painkiller " moving the surgery, but taking the painkillers.

Witness the “Liverpool Pathway” for older / infirm people in the Socialist health care system in the UK; Top doctor's chilling claim: The NHS kills off 130,000 elderly patients every year:

NHS doctors are prematurely ending the lives of thousands of elderly hospital patients because they are difficult to manage or to free up beds, a senior consultant claimed yesterday.

Professor Patrick Pullicino said doctors had turned the use of a controversial ‘death pathway’ into the equivalent of euthanasia of the elderly.

Can anyone say Alfie Evans? Or Zeke Emanuel’s “Quality of Life” index? And don’t forget this speculation by Bookworm about the virus being specifically tailored to target the old; Is this idea about the origin of the Wuhan virus too off the wall? (bolding added):

*However, a disease that specifically targets old and sick people is a useful tool for a socialist country that has a surfeit of old and sick people burdening the medical and welfare systems. We already know that countries such as England routinely deny treatment to the very old or the very sick. They do this because they’re no longer contributing to the system. For that reason, they’re viewed as deadweight, and not worth saving.

*Remember, in socialist societies, an individual’s worth is measured, not by being a unique person made in the image of God, but by that person’s utility to the state. If you’re no longer useful and, worse, if are an economic drain on society, you’ve got to go.

So here’s my crazy theory: I think China may have engineered a virus to clean out the dead weight (i.e., old and sick people) from its population.

Remember – China’s aging population is an economic issue for them (as with most countries). A disease that kills the elderly preferentially is a boon to a society economically, lest those elderly take up too many resources – that, at least, is the cold-blooded Socialist view.

AND I OPENED THE DOOR

After Trump stopped travel from China and Europe, for which the Left excoriated him, the Left was out there telling people to go out. E.g., Pelosi saying to come to the lunar festival in late February, Fauci saying Go on a cruise in March, or De-blah-bla-Blasio telling people to go out to restaurants, take the subway, etc. Also, Democrats and Their Media Allies Want You to Forget How They Downplayed Wuhan Coronavirus.

And I suddenly understood, like the person who opens the door and grasps the horror of the monster they are about to confront: They did this deliberately. They deliberately, they knowingly, encouraged the spread of the virus. In nursing homes, in the general population, they worked with malice aforethought to increase the numbers of infected people as a way to jack the cases and deaths... they did this deliberately as a way to attack Trump and get a Socialist-leaning administration into office. Because they know, they've been planning, to change everything if they get in so that no Republican, let alone a populist, gets into the White House or holds a majority in Congress.

And if you assume the virus is deliberately engineered by the Chinese, as I do, and engineered to target the old specifically, which is possible but frightening if we understand DNA manipulation that precisely, then why take the action to put cases into a vulnerable population... an act unprecedented that I know of for any other flu season... unless you were told that it would be a good way to get rid of old people in advance.

And here's the recoil that most people have: That's monstrous. They couldn't do that. They wouldn't do that. That would mean they intentionally killed their fellow citizens.

But remember that attempting to create the great Socialist Utopia, time after time around the world, Socialists have murdered over 100 million civilians in the 20th century:

Including 1/3 of my wife's ethnic group:

The Hungry Steppe: Famine, Violence, and the Making of Soviet Kazakhstan

(Image source)

(Caption: A mother and child, victims of the terror famine in Kazakhstan. Freezing and starving.)

The Khmer Rouge killed over 20% of the population:

Ben Kiernan estimates that 1.671 million to 1.871 million Cambodians died as a result of Khmer Rouge policy, or between 21% and 24% of Cambodia's 1975 population.

(Image source)

And don't forget China's estimated 40-60 million.

If committed Socialists in the USSR and China and Cambodia deliberately starved people to death by the tens of millions, a process that takes weeks and can be agonizing, or worked them to death on farms or in other slave camps, then what would give a committed American Socialist pause to have a “mere” few hundred thousand people die by a disease if that meant getting Trump out?

Because if America falls to Socialism, is there any serious other impediment to the entire world falling?

THE TRUMP JUGGERNAUT

Up until Covid hit President Trump was a juggernaut and his election via a Trumpslide all but certain, with inevitable down-ticket effects as well. He. Was. Unstoppable. The economy was roaring – abracadabra with a magic wand, baby. Record low black unemployment (Blexit), record low Hispanic unemployment (Lexit), smashing highs in the stock market, etc., etc., etc. Jobs coming back from overseas. Better trade agreements. Highest labor force participation rate for decades. Industries considered moribund or comatose awakening. Wages rising. People seeing the Left as the intolerant cult that it is and walking away (Walkaway). The hated-by-the-Left Israel helped and supported (Jexit The Exodus Movement JewsChooseTrump). Islam actually being pushed back. The wall being built. Belief in America was being reborn (if you have even a scintilla of an echo of a shred of love for America, your eyes cannot not get “dusty” as you watch this):

[The Best Is Yet To Come - Trump 2020 Campaign Ad / 3:41]

Contrast with their horror over any love of America... like Pelosi here:

It's like a vampire being forced to hold a cross.

In parallel, the idea of nations and nationalism is rising under Trump (and other populist leaders), countering the endless loop of John Lennon's globalist fantasy over which the Left flogs their collective bishops:

Civilization: The West and the Rest

Why the West is Best: A Muslim Apostate's Defense of Liberal Democracy

Something had to be done to stop his amelioration of the Left's desired chaos. So – barf alert – consider this short perspective from hawk spit Jane Fonda. But listen to what she's saying, praising Covid as a way to stop Trump.

(HT Diogenes)

Enter Covid, and a way to blame him for dead Americans. Perfect. The more sick, the more dying, the better.

Update: As well as more evidence the jihad against HCQ cost lives; Europe's second wave suggests COVID pandemic could have been avoided (bolding added):

The referenced analysis reviewed "[m]any countries that adopted or declined early treatment with HCQ, effectively forming a large trial with 1.8

billion people in the treatment group and 663 million in the control group." Their analysis found that the countries using HCQ early and extensively had 70.7% lower total deaths. Although India is a relatively poor country and has a less robust medical infrastructure, and its lockdowns and mask mandates were minimal and likely undercounted COVID deaths, its low death trend was consistent with other heavily HCQ-using countries. Additionally, India's over-1 billion population provided a huge sample size.

Also see here; COVID-19 Outpatients - Early Risk-Stratified Treatment with Zinc plus Low-Dose Hydroxychloroquine and Azithromycin: A Retrospective Case Series Study.

How else to explain the still-ongoing jihad against HCQ; Hydroxychloroquine: A Morality Tale (italics in original, bolding added):

*What is unique about the hydroxychloroquine discussion is that it is a story of “unwished thinking”—to coin a term for the perverse hope that some good outcome that most sane people would earnestly desire, will never come to pass. It’s about how, in the midst of a pandemic, thousands started earnestly hoping—before the science was really in—that a drug, one that might save lives at a comparatively low cost, would not actually do so. Reasonably good studies were depicted as sloppy work, fatally flawed. Many have excelled in making counterfeit bills that look real, but few have excelled at making real bills look counterfeit. As such, as we sort this out, we shall observe not only some “tricks” about how to make bad studies look like good ones, but also how to make good studies look like bad ones. And why should anyone facing a pandemic wish to discredit potentially lifesaving medications?

Or how treatment with plasma from recovered patients was praised... until Trump touted it; HCQ All Over Again: WaPo Trashes Blood Plasma COVID-19 Treatment After Trump Announces Breakthrough (all formatting and links in original):

[T]he Washington Post again touted the potential of blood plasma, also called convalescent plasma, in treating the virus. “A large study of 20,000 hospitalized covid-19 patients who received transfusions of blood plasma reorganized covid-19 patients who received transfusions of blood plasma from people who recovered found the treatment was safe and suggests giving it to people early in the disease may be beneficial,” they reported June 18, 2020, in an article headlined, “Blood plasma from people who recovered is a safe covid-19 treatment, study says.”

Earlier this month, four former FDA commissioners wrote an op-ed in the Washington Post arguing that “blood plasma might be the COVID-19 treatment we need.”

Flash forward Trump’s announcement that a breakthrough treatment for the coronavirus, convalescent plasma, had been given emergency approval by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA). According to FDA Commissioner Stephen Hahn, plasma treatments reduce mortality of COVID-19 by 35 percent, but, suddenly, the Washington Post isn’t very impressed by blood plasma as a COVID-19 treatment anymore.

“Scientists express doubts about coronavirus treatment touted as breakthrough by Trump” reads the headline on their live updates page Monday afternoon.

In other words, they were enthusiastically for it until they were against it. Because Orange Man praised it.

STATED: THE CONSPIRACY

Democrats intentionally murdered Americans by fighting effective treatments like HCQ, hampering & harassing Trump at every turn politically, leveraging their allies in the enemedia and big tech companies to censor any information counter to The Narrative, and by encouraging the virus’ spread, all to create a meme – “Trump killed Americans” – as a weapon to attack Trump in the election to get Socialism to triumph as a backup if their other efforts like impeachment failed.

Also, older people are no longer economically productive, so this saves The State money. Killing older people has the additional benefit of eliminating those who remember “way back when” – when we had freedom, and the nuclear family, and morality and ethics and belief in Hashem (G-d) rather than Marx, and might impart those memories and lessons and faith to the new generations the Left is so eager to indoctrinate. After all, in their minds it is The State that owns the children, not “useless eaters” remembering times past. Reprising other Socialists:

Democrats are as guilty of democide as monsters like Lenin, Hitler, Stalin, Pol Pot, etc.

Death by Government

And IMHO every bit as needing of "fixing" as the above received after the inevitable "spicy time" is over.

They also believed that their immediate responsibility would be to protect against what they called the counter revolution and they felt that this counter revolution could best be guarded against by creating and establishing reeducation centers in the Southwest where would take all the people who needed to be reeducated into the new way of thinking and teach them how things were going to be.

I asked, well, what is going to happen to those people that we can't reeducate that are diehard capitalists and the reply was that they'd have to be eliminated. And when I pursued this further they estimated that they would have to eliminate 25 million people in these reeducation centers. And when I say eliminate I mean kill – 25 million people.

I want you to imagine sitting in a room with 25 people most of which have graduate degrees from Columbia and other well known educational centers and hear them figuring out the logistics for the elimination of 25 million people and they were dead serious."

Just what are the Covid camps for – in Canada and New Zealand for example? Isolation facilities in America exist already. What don't we know about?

Rules 4 Radicals BY SAUL ALINKSY

- 1) HEALTHCARE - If you control healthcare, you control the people.
- 2) POVERTY - Increase the poverty level as high as possible. Poor people are easier to control and less likely to attack the source of their survival.
- 3) DEBT - Increase debt to unsustainable levels. This will allow Government to increase taxes, produce more poverty, and further control the people.
- 4) GUN CONTROL - Remove the ability for citizens to defend themselves from their Government, thus allowing for the creation of a police state.
- 5) WELFARE - Take control of every aspect of the their lives and survival: food, housing, healthcare, income.
- 6) EDUCATION - Control what people listen to; control what children are taught in school. Emphasize progressive ideals only.
- 7) RELIGION - Remove the people's belief in God from Government and schools. No ideology or authority can supersede the power of the state.
- 8) CLASS WARFARE - Divide the people into warring factions: wealthy vs poor. This will foster further discontent, animosity, and justify raising taxes necessary for the redistribution of income through social programs.

The rabbit hole continues. Not sure where the borg-like left get their talking points from. Here's why I say that: I'm a part of a community service club within our shul. Most members are octogenarians. Had a guest speaker for this month's "program". Turns out the dude was a professor of Poly-Sci here at the local city university. Long story short, it was an hour of fear porn aimed at the members of the club, with a poly-sci twist to it. Basically, dude was in the tank for Biden. There was a Q&A, was able to ask questions of this cat. Asked several, two of which were ignored and the other two were twisted. Without going on a diatribe, one question I asked was about violence in the streets when Biden loses at the hands of Antifa/BLM. Was told that they're just ideas and aren't heavily organized. Second question that was twisted: Asked about the rise of socialism/communism and why it's so popular, given the myriad failures worldwide. Prof decided to talk about "democratic socialists" being elected in Europe and that's not a bad thing.

Either way, these same octogenarians are terrified for the reasons you mentioned above. They're ridiculously lonely. My wife takes part in a Chesed group at the Shul, aimed at outreach to those folks. What none of them understand or want to understand is that we're talking about a 0.027% chance of contracting it, based on current CDC numbers. 8ish million out of 330 million (known) population.

Your point about "eaters and shitters" is duly noted; I concur. Part of me wonders if it's a morbid strategy for getting out the vote for that constituency.
